

Contents

Editor's Note	12
Acknowledgement	16
Practical Issues for the Reader	17
Prescript by Maj-Britt Lindahl, PhD, cert. Psychologist & Psychotherapist	17
Introduction	19
Part I: Origins of Dream Work	31
Shamanism:
The World of Nature "Spirits" and Tibetan Culture	32
A Story from my Family House	34
Buddhist Origins of Dream Work	38
Dream Yoga - Buddhist Dream Practice	39
Dream Interpretation and Working Directly with Dreams	44
Part II: Working with Dream Material	47
Introduction	49
Chapter 1: Basic Principles of Buddhist Psychology/"Inner Science"	51
Introduction: Body, Mind and Reality	51
"Body" - Body Sense Minds and Realities	52
6th mind Realities and Sense Realities	53
Harmonising Body and Mind	59
Conceptual Cognition's Domination in Modern Cultures	60
Mindful Body Awareness	63
Self-Reference and Anātman/dagme ('Selflessness')	66
Self-Reference and the Dynamic of Mind and Reality
- Self-Referential Core	69
Home in Ourselves	72
Multiplicity of Self-references	75
The Dynamics of Mind and Vulnerable Self-Referential Core	75
Distinctions between Self-reference feeling and Conceptual Self Identity	77
Chapter 2: Imagery State	79
Introduction	79
Why We Use Imagery Body and Imagery Reality	81
Establishing Imagery Body and Clear Imagery	82

Questions / Answers	89
Establishing Clear Imagery versus Visualization Meditation	91
Body-Mind-Reality Interrelations	92
Wild and Drowsy Mind in Imagery and Visualisation Meditation	99
Connection between Imagery and Visualisation Meditation	100
Why Train Imagery State before Dream State	102
Imagery abilities in Ancient and Modern Cultures	103
Mastering Imagery Body and Reality	104
Chapter 3: Transformation	110
Underlying Self-References	110
Disturbing Self-Referential Structures	114
Dual Transformation	118
Dual Transformation Using Protectors / Nature Energies from Original Cultures	123
Non-Dual Transformation	130
Levels of Body-Mind for Personal Developmental Transformation	140
Explanation Exercise 6: River and Mountain	143
“My Dream”	150
Explanation of Exercise 7: Intuition and Queries	154
Chapter 4: Towards Nature of Reality	157
Nature of the Dream State	157
Asaṅga’s Imprints of Self-Referential Awareness	162
Asaṅga’s Imprints of Becoming	162
Asaṅga’s Imprints of Notion	163
How to Remember Dreams?	168
Questions and Answers	169
Recalled Dream Work	170
Explanation of Exercise 8: Finish a Recalled Dream	172
Questions and Answers	175
Advice	176
PART III: Dreams and Spiritual Realm	185
Chapter 1: Entrance to the Spiritual Realm	187
Introduction	187
Connections: Dream, Vision and 1st Meditation State	189
Entrance to Lucid Dreaming	192
Questions and Answers	194

Chapter 2: The Six Yogas	197
Introduction	197
Inner Heat Yoga	197
Forceful Ejection/Transference of Mind Essence Yoga	198
Illusory Body Yoga	198
The Intermediate State – Bardo – Yoga	199
Transference of Consciousness Yoga	199
Clear Light Yoga	200
The Goal of the Six Yogas	201
Dream Linages in Different Tibetan Schools	202
Traditional Dream Yoga: First Stage	203
Lucid Dreaming	203
The Use of Willpower	208
Raising Will Power to Become Lucid	210
Abilities, Bringing Awareness into Unconscious Processes	212
Semi-Vase Breathing	216
Explanation of Preparation Exercise	217
Explanation of Main Exercise	218
Semi-Vase Breathing Guided Practice	219
Dream Yoga: Second Stage	223
Subtle Body (Yilü) for Personal Development	224
Dealing with Dream Appearances	227
Śamatha (Shine), Visualisation Meditation and Tripartation of the Spiritual Path.	229
Dream Yoga, Second Part, Second Stage: Subtle Body (Yilü) for Spiritual Application	234
Using the Dream State Gaining Knowledge	235
Story: Gaining Insight in Dream State	237
Does Spiritual Dimension require Ontological Change?	240
Tarab Tulku's Shogdrug Kyabgön Dream	242
Dream Yoga: Third Stage	244
Proof of Mastery of the Illusory Body at the Time of Death	249
Dream Yoga: Fourth Stage	250
Dream Yoga a Tantra Practice - Summary	252

PART IV: Interrelated Nature – A Deeper Understanding	255
Introduction	256
“Matter” and “Energy” – Simultaneously Opposing and Uniting Interrelationship	257
First of the Three Pairs of Pratīyasamutpāda (tendrel) underpinning the Unity in Duality Paradigm	257
“Body” and “Mind” – Simultaneously Opposing and Uniting Interrelationship	265
Subject and Object – Simultaneously Opposing and Uniting Interrelationship	273
Summary	282
Postscript	282
Final Remarks on Indo-Tibetan Dream Work	285
Appendix 1: Main Aspects of the Tibetan ‘Spirit’ World	289
Appendix 2: “Energy” and Its Many Ways of Usage	293
References	296
Presentation Editor, Lene Handberg	297